

A Community Welcome

Supplying new residents with the opportunity of getting acquainted and sharing in social and community affairs is the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club, which will stage its annual Membership Coffee tomorrow evening. In a preliminary planning session are, from left, Mmes. Thomas Williams, serving cookies; Eugene Stinson, seated, hostess; Stephen Godfrey and Richard Irons, membership chairman, with coffee service. (Press-Herald Photo)

Welcome Wagon Club's Membership Coffee Thursday Evening

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will entertain new and prospective members tomorrow evening at a Membership Coffee to be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Stinson, 2550 W. 234th St.

Mrs. K. Klossner, president, invites anyone wishing to attend the affair and learn more of the organization to call Mrs. Stinson.

Welcome Wagon Club, comprised of new residents in the Torrance area, meets the second Thursday of each month at area restaurants with babysitting facilities provided at a nominal charge.

Within the club there are bridge groups, bowling teams and tennis players, who meet weekly. A book discussion group is also active this year. The Welfare Committee has chosen as its philanthropy assistance to a Project Head Start class.

In addition, sightseeing trips to points of interest are held and members and their husbands participate in social evenings once a month.

All interested women of the area are invited to join the club which now has an approximate membership of 150.

Future Bride

NANCY BATTAGLINI

Battaglini - Allison

Climaxing a childhood romance will be the early evening wedding on Saturday Nov. 4 at the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church when Miss Nancy Concetta Battaglini becomes the bride of James Ray Allison Pastor D. E. Kenney will officiate at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Battaglini, 3821 W. 171st St., Torrance, is a 1966 graduate of North High School. She is an auditor for the Pacific Telephone Co. in Los Angeles.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison, 17038 Glenburn, was graduated from North High in 1967. He is employed by Tully and Co., wholesale meat firm.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

B-1

SEPTEMBER 27, 1967

Lawyers' Wives to Be Presented Charter

At the State Convention of Lawyers' Wives in session in Monterey from Monday through tomorrow, the Harbor-Peninsula Lawyers' Wives will receive their charter.

An interesting program has been planned for the Lawyers' Wives and today they are making an adobe tour in the morning and a bridge and canasta party at Casa Munras this afternoon.

Thursday morning the closing session will be held at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Rep. James C. Cormon will be the breakfast speaker.

Representing the Harbor-Peninsula Lawyers' Wives at the convention are Mmes. Allan Lind, president, Charles R. Jennings, vice president Legal Aid; Joe Raycraft, director; Edgar W. Gibb, state representative; and Paul Doyle.

City of Hope Benefit

A potluck dinner followed by dancing is the benefit planned by the Sam Levy Chapter of the City of Hope for Saturday evening at the Torrance Recreation Center at 7 p.m. Arlene and Berks Baker, song and dance team, will entertain. Committee for the event enjoying refreshments as they make final plans are, from left, Mrs. Harold Wolpert served by Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta while Mrs. Bert Lynn accepts cookies from Mrs. Jerome Scharfman. Door prizes will be awarded. The public may secure tickets from any member. (Press-Herald Photo)

Ooh La La It's Magnifique

French gaiety will set the scene for the "C'est Si Bon" Fashion Shows to be presented by the Serra Mothers Club Oct. 16 and 17. Enjoying a bit of French vivacity and charm, committee members ate in the mood for the French spectacular. They are from left, Mr. and Mrs. George Neeland as French dancers, Mrs. Homer Montrose, artist with Mrs. Francis X. Appel, critic, and Mrs. Kenneth Edward, can-can girl. (Press-Herald Photo)

Tour England, South Wales On Vacation

Mrs. Chris Jones, 819 Sartori, and her granddaughter, Miss Allison Diane Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Jones, 2054 Reynosa Drive, have returned from a seven weeks vacation in England and South Wales.

The traveler were met at the London airport by relative who drove them to Aberdare, South Wales, home of Mrs. Jones before she came to the United States fifty years ago.

In Aberdare, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emrys Evans. Several parties were given for the California visitors and they were taken on many sight-seeing trips, visiting London where they saw the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Tower of London, and other historic places. Their tours also included many beautiful sights in South Wales.

Returning to the Los Angeles Airport they were met by relatives. Miss Jones is employed in the Torrance office of the Pacific Telephone Co.

Round The Clock Fashions

What well known designers have created for milady from morning through evening during the fall and winter season will be presented in the Junior Woman's Club's "Flight Into Fashion" Champagne Brunch Saturday at the Los Verdes Country Club. After the 10:30 a.m. brunch, Cyndy Streater, women's travel consultant for Delta Airlines, will present the show. A preview of the fashion parade is staged by, from left, Mmes. Donald McKenzie, in lounge pants and robe; Larry Smith, in tennis costume; William Ritchie, wearing feathered hat and matching boa; Robert Schultz in street suit; and in background Miss Streater, commentator. Fashions worn by Shirley MacLaine and Doris Day will be an added feature. Proceeds will be used for philanthropy. Mrs. John Thayer may be contacted for tickets. (Press-Herald Photo)

Serra Mothers Club Presents

Fashion Showings Oct. 16-17

"C'est Si Bon" will be the theme of the thirteenth annual fashion events to be staged by the Serra Mothers Club on Oct. 16 and 17 at the Junipero Serra High School auditorium, Van Ness and Compton Blvds., Gardena.

For this lavish French spectacle a color scheme of shocking pink and orange has been chosen. In a "gay Paree" setting guests will gather at 7 p.m. the evenings for a social prior to the parade of new fashions.

The three chairmen for the Fashion Show are Mmes. Don Johnson, Harry Sweet and Jim Gravenlyk. Commentator for the show will be Mrs. Charles Donovan.

Mrs. P. Fiorella of Torrance is entertainment director. The stage settings will be done by alumni parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Neeland. Decorations will be the work of Mrs. G. Wais and her committee.

Mrs. Fiorella is also serving as fashion coordinator and will present the season's new creations provided by area salons. Serra men students, escorting the teenage models, will also model the newest in campus fashions for men. Elaine Richards is in charge of makeup and a Torrance salon will create the hair fashions for the models.

Dozens of prizes will be awarded during the evening. Mrs. D. J. Webb is in charge of the grand prize; Mrs. E. K. Dixon, door prizes; and Mrs. H. E. Buchanan, table favors.

Mrs. Edward Schmedler is in charge of advertising. Others assisting with the two-evening event include Mmes. A. D. Tatto, Mothers Club president; Neil Bellmore, past president; Joseph Cabrera, William Irons, Jerry Conger, G. C. Waterkotte, George Stockert, P. R. O'Brien, J. S. Dzida, Glenn Hellman, C. J. Boutte, C. A. Zapf, T. J. Young and Lars A. Holt. Organist will be Mrs. James Wright.

Tickets for the fashion spectacular, proceeds from which will go to the Society of Mary to educate Marist priest and brothers, may be secured by calling Mrs. J. B. Banks or the school office.